During Ramadan, people of the Muslim faith, fast from sunrise until sunset. The purpose of the fast is to practice self-restraint, piety, and generosity. The meal that they have at sunset is called Iftar – the meal that breaks the fast at the end of each day during Ramadan.

IDI will bring delicious Mediterranean food to share with us, at no cost, as part of their philosophy of generosity and reaching out to other cultures.

We encourage you, your family, and friends to join us for this evening to share, to learn, to visit, and to have fun while we break bread together.

If you can come, we are asking you to sign the sheet in the Narthex so that we can let the folks at IDI know how many people are coming. This will enable them to bring an appropriate amount of food.

We will be in the Narthex on March 17th, 24th, and 31st.
